

Fresh Starts COOKING SCHOOL

Class & Events Schedule • Fall 2010

A Program of Homeward Bound of Marin

BENEFIT CHEF EVENT

Four Courses TO FINANCIAL SUCCESS

WITH JEFF STOFFER, CFA, CFP®

Thursday, Sept. 30, 2010 —
6:30pm to 9pm

Meet Jeff Stoffer, certified financial planner and certifiably incurable chef, in a special fundraiser for Homeward Bound to feed your appetite and your future.

A former Chez Panisse chef, Jeff will treat guests to a four-course menu capped by the famed restaurant's pear tarte tatin as well as a four-course plan for financial success.

- Fall Salad with Eggplant Crouton
- Caramelized Scallop with Lemon Pepper Relish
- Mustard Chicken a la Tanis
- Pear Tarte Tatin

Jeff will share tips and techniques learned working side-by-side with chefs Alice Waters and Paul Bertolli while using delicious food to convey strategies of healthy financial planning.

Whether setting a financial table or preparing a dinner party, Jeff shows that success depends on how you chart and follow your course. If you love to cook or just love to eat, come see how expertise in the kitchen can help plan a well-fed retirement.

$49 includes tastes from the full menu

Tickets are available online when you visit www.hbofm.org and click "Take A Cooking Class" or by calling 415-382-3363, x243.

Thanks to our generous sponsor: Whole Foods Market

Stoffer Wealth Advisors
VALUES BASED PLANNING, THE RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

Fresh Starts Cooking School is a project of Homeward Bound of Marin, with all proceeds designated to support shelter and job-training programs for homeless adults.

Register for classes! Register online at www.hbofm.org and click "Take A Cooking Class." Or call 415-382-3363 ext. 243 to reserve a seat.

Class Location: The Next Key Center • 1385 N. Hamilton Parkway, Novato, CA 94949