

Cooking Up a Healthier Financial Future

Are you hungry to expand your investment knowledge?

Are you looking to make smarter financial choices and better investment decisions?

Chances are this class is for you.

Learn the three most valuable concepts to help you plan and invest wisely. Discover common emotional mistakes people make while you enjoy a tasty new approach to an important subject.

If you think learning about investing might be unappetizing...

Join Jeff Stoffer, CFA, CFP, principal of Stoffer Wealth Advisors and former Chez Panisse chef, as he cooks up a four-course “investment menu” to expand your financial knowledge.

You’ll never look at your statements in the same way again.

The next class is January 20, 2010, from 6:30–8:30 PM, at Sir Francis Drake High School in San Anselmo. Register at www.marinlearn.com. Click on Courses, Financial Planning.
